Description:

Riverdale Borough preserved this property in 2008. It is located off Paterson-Hamburg Turnpike, next to the quarry, west of Interstate 287. It is adjacent to the preserved Glenburn House (a.k.a. Van Ness House) property, which was previously purchased with the assistance of county open space funding. The tract is entirely located within a floodplain and contains some wetlands. The acquisition complements the borough's preserved lands in this region.
