The primary target populations for this funding are Individuals and families experiencing short term, non-recurring emergencies.

Eligible activities include:

- Emergency Shelter/Hotel/Motel Placement
- Prevention of Homelessness activities (rental subsidies, security deposits, rent/mortgage and utility assistance)
- Case Management (Individualized counseling and/or financial support to prevent or recover from homelessness and assist clients obtain/retain permanent affordable housing)

For 2023, the following funding distinctions will be observed:

Approximately 75% of SSH funds are earmarked to provide services listed above for those individuals and families ineligible for assistance through Temporary Assistance for Needy Families (TANF), General Assistance (GA) and supplemental Security Income (SSI).

Approximately 25% of funds are earmarked specifically to provide short-term (four month), non-recurring assistance to working families and cannot be used for:

- Persons receiving SSI
- Single persons or couples without dependent children
- Families with income over 250% of the Federal Poverty Index
- Any assistance that would require benefits for more than four months
- Families currently serving a TANF sanction or whose TANF case was closed due to sanction

All providers of SSH/State and SSH/TANF Shelter and/or Prevention services (with the exception of Domestic Violence Shelters) must utilize the New Jersey "AWARDS" Homeless Management Information System (HMIS) in order to become a State approved SSH vendor.

All 2023 applications will be reviewed by the Morris County Human Services Advisory Council. This review will determine 2023 Social Services for the Homeless recommendations. Social Services for the Homeless will be awarded based upon availability of funds for calendar year 2023. Should the County receive notification of a reduction in State or Federal funds, 2023 funding may be reduced or terminated. Morris County will not be responsible for replacing or maintaining funding levels in the event that any possible reductions occur in the 2023 allocation process.

The County of Morris reserves the right to renew Subgrant agreements for the period of January 1, 2024 through December 31, 2024, based upon annual program review and the availability of funding.
