Grant Recipient: United Methodist Church in Madison

Location: Madison Boro.

The United Methodist Church in Madison was built in 1870. It is now individually listed in the Historic Registers for local architectural significance for its expression of the Romanesque Revival style.

The 2005~2008 construction grants provided for the stabilization and preservation of stained glass windows in the sanctuary, front façade, and corner towers.

A separate 2007 non-construction grant provided for the preparation of a Preservation Plan for the building.
