2013	$23,880	Preservation Plan
2014	$19,120	Construction Documents
2015	$258,800	Phase 1 Exterior Restoration

Grant Recipient: Rockaway Borough

Location: Rockaway Boro.

The Joseph Jackson House, now the Rockaway Borough Free Public Library, was constructed between 1800 and 1829 as a Dutch Colonial residence. The building is individually listed on the Historic Registers.

The 2013 grant completed a Preservation Plan for the exterior envelopes of the building including accessibility review, structural and MEP evaluation, and paint analysis.

A 2015 grant provided for partial roof replacement, site re-grading, exterior repairs, including the former milk room.
